

Reading and prayer 10th November 2020

Wise warriors are mightier than strong ones,
and those who have knowledge than those who have strength;
for by wise guidance you can wage your war,
and in abundance of counsellors there is victory.

My child, eat honey, for it is good,
and the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste.
Know that wisdom is such to your soul;
if you find it, you will find a future,
and your hope will not be cut off.

Proverbs 24:5-6,13-14

Father Almighty, our hope is in you, your ways are wise, with wisdom you instruct us. So often we have chosen the way of human strength and understanding and thought our way best; forgive our foolish ways. We pray that we will always seek that which is Holy and righteous. May wisdom be the hallmark of our lives, may our lives be so firmly rooted in you that the winds of adversity will not move us or cause us to fear. Amen.
