

Reading and prayer 17th November 2020

“No good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit; for each tree is known by its own fruit. Figs are not gathered from thorns, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush. The good person out of the good treasure of the heart produces good, and the evil person out of evil treasure produces evil; for it is out of the abundance of the heart that the mouth speaks.

Luke 6:43-45

Father God, we thank you that through Jesus you have began a new work within us. Our hearts have been changed and continue to be transformed by the working of the Holy Spirit within us.

All that is unworthy, unholy, and unrighteous let it no longer be part of our lives for we only want to bear good fruit for your Kingdom. We are sorry for the times we have not borne the fruit of the Spirit. Create in us a clean heart which overflows with the abundance of joy, gratitude and Grace for all that you are and ever will be. Amen
