

Reading and prayer 9th November 2020

The wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

James 3:17-18

Father God, we give you thanks that all we need for living a righteous life is found in you. Forgive us for the times we rely on our own understanding and want our own way. For the times we have not yielded the fruits of the Spirit of the new life you have given us we are sorry. We ask for your wisdom in all of our dealings that we may produce that which is from your very heart. May we scatter the seeds of peace where ever we go. Amen.
